

Look Up and see the unexpected!

Hawaii gifted assoc. 2021

Written by Little I

Today I went for a walk and I looked Up and I saw fluffy clouds and an endless sky

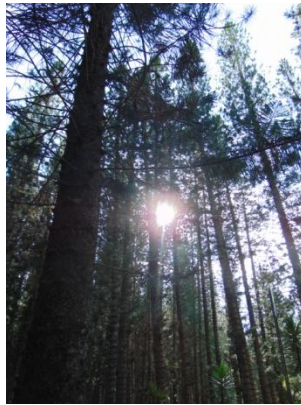

I walked further and I Looked Up and I saw Mental Monsters with long necks

I took a few more steps and I Looked Up and saw Fiery Dragons with Big Red Eyes!

As I walked a distance I Looked Up and saw Trees towering above me swaying in the wind!

Down the path I Looked Up and saw Giraffes with freckled faces smiling at me!

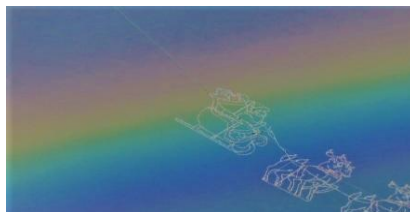

As I turned the corner I Looked up and saw a super Highway with a Tram alongside!

Then I turned around and Looked Up and saw a Skyscraper so tall it made me feel so small!

It was close to sunset and I Looked Up and saw colorful little frozen drops falling on me ..was it snow?

Finally, I looked up and saw two warm arms reaching down to welcome me and I knew all was good.

I was home ....

The End...
